Dear reader,

Across Allen County, business leaders like you are looking for ways to grow. You want a leg up in marketing your products or services. You're looking to build your brand recognition in the community, and bolster your reputation as an organization that's committed to the long-term development of Allen County.

Sponsorships with Greater Fort Wayne Inc. can do all of the above.

Picture an auditorium full of the business leaders you're trying to reach, with your company's logo front and center. Or, imagine being introduced via email to thousands of people in the business community. What if you could reach that gathering full of perfect prospects and turn them into your newest customers?

If you're interested in promoting your business and making a difference in our community, I encourage you to review this Sponsorship Guide, or check out the online version at sponsor.gfwinc.com. Every offering is designed to provide the biggest possible impact—through visibility at events and programs, and exposure through a variety of media outlets. And, when you support Greater Fort Wayne Inc., you support the bigger picture of community building and economic development.

There's never been a more exciting time to be in Allen County, and there's no better time than now to be a Greater Fort Wayne Inc. investor. Together, we are building a nationally recognized economy, and that includes building your business.

As always, our team stands ready to help you thrive. Thank you for your support. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

John Urbahns

ONBOARD FORT WAYNE

THE INTERN EXPERIENCE

Each year, local employers attract hundreds of interns from across the country. Once their internship is finished, our goal is to leave them wanting more of Fort Wayne! Through engaging summer events, we create an unforgettable experience for these young professionals, making them eager to call Fort Wayne their new home.

June - July

Projected Attendance: 75 per event

NEWCOMERS

For those new to Allen County, Onboard Fort Wayne provides a variety of support to help residents settle in and get connected. From networking events to resources such as our local volunteer Navigators, we aim to create a welcoming experience for newcomers looking to learn more about Fort Wayne.

Quarterly Event

Projected Attendance: 50 per event

C-SUITE SOCIALS

When executives and their families relocate to Fort Wayne, we are eager to roll out the red carpet. We invite them to join events where they can meet fellow newcomers, familiarize themselves with their new hometown, and catch a glimpse of the best our community has to offer.

Quarterly Event

Projected Attendance: 25 per event

BEST IN CLASS

We're reaching out to Allen County's rising stars! To aid in local talent retention, Onboard Fort Wayne's Best in Class program engages with local high-achieving high school students, educating them on industries and opportunities within their own hometown.

Best in Class will be a Community Action Project in Leadership Fort Wayne's class of 2024.

October

Projected Attendance: 100

ONBOARD FORT WAYNE

Help us roll out the welcome mat! With the Onboard Fort Wayne program, you can make a great first impression with an ideal audience: professionals and their families who are new to the community and looking to build their best lives here in Allen County. Onboard Fort Wayne is designed to help newcomers get plugged into the community so local companies can retain top talent. This program is built around three components: quarterly socials or behind-the-scenes tours of the city, "Navigators" who help newcomers on a one-on-one basis, and online resources.

House to Home finds its Landing spot

Emily Baker and Beth Stutzman have moved quickly—from strangers to startup to success. Now, they're preparing to expand House to Home, their home decor boutique and staging business, into a historic space on The Landing.

After an introduction through mutual friends at church, the pair connected over their shared interest in design. "We are both moms and wanted to work, but also wanted it to be meaningful to us if we were going to be away from our babies," Stutzman said.

They decided to start with home staging for real estate clients, and quickly found themselves in need of unique, trendy furniture—lots of it. After some research, the duo found a way to get new furniture they could sell at below-retail prices, while also acquiring inventory for staging. They quickly found traction, opening a store on East Berry Street and being selected as Bridge Entrepreneurs in the GFW Inc. Bridge Program. Just over 18 months after starting House to Home, they will move their successful venture into a storefront at 110 W. Columbia St., offering full-ser vice home staging and design services, as well as unique home furnishings that fit a variety of lifestyles.

"We always imagined our store being there (on The Landing), but we weren't sure if—or when—it would happen," Stutzman said. "Now, our dream is coming true!"
